

Retro Stop-Loss Special Payment Compensation – The Secretaries of the Military Departments have been directed to implement Retroactive Stop Loss Special Pay as authorized by the Supplemental Appropriations Act of 2009. Payments are retroactive to September 11, 2001, and cover involuntary service performed through September 30, 2009. Individuals may qualify for retroactive stop-loss pay if their enlistment or period of obligated service was involuntarily extended. Claims may be submitted starting October 21 and must be filed by October 21, 2010. More information will be provided as it becomes available.
